PEDCO Professional Achieves
Interior Design Certification

CINCINNATI, OH- PEDCO E&A Services, Inc. (www.pedcoea.com), a full-service engineering and architecture firm, announced today that Jennifer Dwenger Beavers has earned her professional interior design certification from the National Council for Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ).

Upon completion of her Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Design in 2000, she has worked on projects for clients including General Electric Aviation, Procter & Gamble, the Disney Stores and Buffalo Wild Wings.

About PEDCO E&A Services, Inc.

PEDCO E&A Services, Inc. was founded in 1981. With offices located in Cincinnati, Ohio and Fort Wayne, Indiana, PEDCO serves a variety of premier Midwest clients in industries ranging from Corporate, Industrial, and Health Care to Education, Working Environments, and Facility Services. PEDCO's team includes LEED™ accredited professionals and designers of high performance green buildings. Projects range in size from small consulting engagements to comprehensive design services on significant projects.

The National Council for Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ), an independent, not-for-profit organization of state and provincial credentialing bodies, provides the public with the means to identify interior designers who have demonstrated the minimum level of competence needed to practice interior design. In fulfillment of this purpose, NCIDQ provides a professional examination in interior design. One hundred percent of the Examination covers those aspects of the practice of interior design that affect the public health, life safety and welfare.
